VENIA BECHRAKI

Short Bio

Venia Bechraki is a multidisciplinary visual artist working across photography, performance, and large-scale painting. She holds a BFA in Painting from the Athens School of Fine Arts and an MFA in New Media from NYU as an Onassis Foundation Scholar, and has received the Gerondelis Grant and the Jack Goodman Award for Art & Technology.

Her work spans from staged photographic and video performance works exploring female identity, private and public space to recent large scale scroll paintings inspired by Chinese landscape traditions, using movement, rhythm, and gesture to create immersive journeys through space and time. Her work has been exhibited internationally at MOCA Shanghai, Open XII & XVI in Venice, The Hospital Club London, Real Art Ways, The Museum of Photography Thessaloniki, The Theocharakis Foundation, Thessaloniki Biennial, Opening Gallery New York and the Museum of Contemporary Art of Crete. She lives and works in Athens.
